"Publish and Prosper":

European Research "Day and Night"

The European Research Day and Night(s) are annual flagship events of EURAXESS Japan. Due to the current Covid-19 situation, the distinct lectures are now organized as part of a three-evening outreach.

The programme not only includes researchers who present about their recently published (book and journal) research achievements in the social, human and natural sciences but also heads of associations who provide information about the research scene both in Japan and Europe.
